Connect With Will Wilkinson

<https://www.thrivinginbusinessandlife.com/>

Will Wilkinson

- When he read The Science of Getting Rich book, he began to see that some of the principles in the book are not being translated into some teachings today

Discussion with Will & William

- William and Will met years ago and he respected William as a man who stood out from the crowd
- A week ago they did an interview and discussed how William has generated substantial financial wealth with integrity
- The author of The Science of Getting Rich speaks about cooperative wealth and William exemplifies this

What does financial freedom mean?

William shared:

- He had a serious accident and some of his family were lost and he had to reinvent himself from the hospital by seeing the world differently than did before
- He sees money as an energy field that we can participate in
- He recognized how limited the body is and he got really clear that he wanted to create another energy - tying into the material but from a spiritual perspective. He realized that we are stewards of money and material things and became clear that he would like to help others and himself
- See money as an energy that you can use to help people
- When you don't have money, you at least have an energy field - the energy that is material in nature
- William created an income stream from the assets he acquired - he did that by acquiring houses and each one of the houses he added value to.
- In the book The Science of Getting Rich, the author says "you have a right to be rich".
- William thought "how much money is enough?" - money is a flow of energy and he doesn't love money but what it gives him

Chris

- He got his start during a lunch conversation at his job when the other people at the table said that it's possible to work for yourself
- Eight years later he became a millionaire and asked what is the best place to live and moved to Maui
- He made sure that he didn't need too much so he could really focus on his children who were 6 & 4
- The thought that you can be independently wealthy was a thought that appealed to him
- He loved the principle of cooperation rather than competition and was excited to discover this principle in a business book
- To live a life of gratitude has been so meaningful

Will

- He has always enjoyed a tremendous amount of wealth without having "rich people problems"
- He has lived in the stewardship of wealth - trading and using appreciation in relationships
- He has been married for 28 years
- He discussed the importance to "overfill our place"
- The more that he has been able to be generous in the way he interacts with people, the more it returns to him tenfold

William

- We live in a capitalist society - when you buy an asset and you sell it, you are taxed
- Taxes are an indication of how you manage your affairs
- He was interested in real estate and he was interested in tax benefits for real estate
- He used his real estate commission to buy properties with views of the ocean and remodeled them
- During the war, he decided that he would pay as little tax as legally possible so he was not contributing to funding the war
- He learned about capital gains - the law of 1031
- He has decided to invest in properties where he feels people will want to go
- He lived in the houses and remodeled them, and after two years he sold the house, and the entire capital gain up to a certain amount was tax-free
- He would use his profits from the house to invest in more real estate
- He can say he saved about a million and a half in taxes
- He looks at investing in real estate and renting out the property as a way of sharing the property

01:01:41 Janine Firpo: Lynne Twist talks about the energy of money in her book, The Soul of Money.

01:04:00 Lorna S: Currency

01:05:57 Carole Hodges: Lynne Twist refers to "profound sufficiency" which is living at an optimal prosperity - you have all that you need to prosper without stress and greed.

01:07:13 Fabulous Camille Robb 407-473-1832: Oooo Yes !!

01:07:37 Sarah Lee MBA: You are right Carole.. not having enough has nothing to do with money. There are very wealthy people who feel they do not have enough or will never have enough. Having "enough" is a mindset on scarcity vs abundance. Enough is an abundance mentality.

01:08:41 Janine Firpo: Part of the question related to having enough is when we reach the point that we have enough, how can we activate our money to have a positive impact on the world.

01:09:37 will wilkinson: Great question Janine. I'd love us to explore that.

01:10:04 Janine Firpo: Thanks Will. It is something I think about a lot.

01:10:23 Christopher Dilts: Great share Carole! Lynne Twist's book the Soul of Money is highly recommended and her work with the Pachamama Alliance embodies the highest qualities of this discussion about
"Stewardship" and the highest energetic use of wealth. ❤️🙏

01:10:29 Christopher Dilts: See
<https://www.pachamama.org/lynne-twist>

01:11:06 Sarah Lee MBA: The more positive impact you actually have.. the easier money flows to you.. the more responsible you are with money ( serving others with it and keeping it in flow) the more it will "stay" with you. Keeping and multiplying money is just as important as drawing it to you. each aspect is its own awareness.

01:11:33 Carole Hodges: To have a positive impact on the world, we need a money energy that is bigger than our personal requirements. If we create that from our unique genius, it is possible to expand your happiness along with our wealth to serve others.

01:11:52 Sarah Lee MBA: agreed

01:11:59 Paul Schumann debt solutions: another great book you will want to read is Carole Hodges new book. menopause millionaire to get it www.themenopausemillionairebook.com already a best seller and working on international #1

01:14:05 Janine Firpo: I am committed to investing ever dollar that I have, even those in my savings and checking accounts, in a way that aligns with my values and builds the world I want to see. And I am doing that without giving up financial return.

01:14:45 Ray Blanchard: TRUST, TITHING, and GRACE are powerful in my life too.

01:15:22 Amy Chang's iPhone: Thanks Christopher. I just saw a video on Nas Daily of the most Generous Billionaire, a 29 year old billionaire who makes money "earn to give" He gave away 50 million last year to charities and this year intends to give even more this year. Will try to post link.

01:15:22 Ray Blanchard: The Richest Man in Babylon really influenced me in my early life and I still bring it forward today...

01:15:33 Michelle Quevedo -IGNITE Your Essence - TV Talk Show: Wow! "We've, my wife and I of 28 years have always lived a lifestyle of grace." 🥰🥰🥰

01:16:23 Carole Hodges: I'd like to hear about building resilience. What are the strategies for facing rapid change - whether that is financial, health, or relationships. When we face challenges, what are the elements of resilience?

01:16:23 Sarah Lee MBA: @ amy Nas daily is the best.. it is a must .. for 1-3 mins a day

01:16:41 Barbie Layton: Beautiful, Will! The difference between heart-centered millionaires/billionaires who are fulfilled and it is all about the benevolence to uplevel everywhere and everyone they meet! 🙏❤️

01:17:28 Janine Firpo: This is my first time here and I am delighted to be observing this conversation about money, flow, grace, and soul. Thank you Doria.

01:18:14 Barbie Layton: Yes, service! The more we have, the more we can share around the world! I do meditations of showering the planet with millions of holographic Barbie bubbles filled with love and watch them burst bubbles of love 💕 to everyone! 🙏❤️

01:18:39 Michelle Quevedo -IGNITE Your Essence - TV Talk Show: "The whole idea we had to achieve, was to serve. We created a culture for people to survive" -Christopher Harding

01:18:53 Fabulous Camille Robb 407-473-1832: That is it Christopher!!! being a servant to others
