Xochitl and I know a beautiful couple who own a small international company that makes healthy snacks for children with wholesome ingredients. They have two immediate opportunities for greater distribution through Amazon and a large grocery distributor for their wonderful healthy children's snacks.

They are in immediate need of a minimum of $250,000 - $500,000 to make the impact that will make it highly profitable within 12 months.

Do you know anyone who could help raise that with them? I can provide more details by direct message chat here for those who want them.
